

Logic and Philosophy Talks at CMU

Past talks in this series

The colloquium is held in Baker Hall A53 (downstairs in the "New Wing")
All talks start at 4:30 pm, with refreshments at 4

Philosophy Colloquium Thursday 22 January 2004 4:30 pm, Baker Hall A53 Refreshments at 4	"The Emergence of Quantification Theory, 1879-1940" William Ewald Professor of Law and Philosophy University of Pennsylvania Abstract
Philosophy Colloquium Thursday 19 February 2004 4:30 pm, Baker Hall A53 Refreshments at 4	"Altering the Remote Past" Alexander Afriat Center for Philosophy of Science University of Pittsburgh and University of Urbino, Italy Abstract
Philosophy Colloquium * Please note special day and place * Wednesday 3 March 2004 4:30 pm, Baker Hall 150	"Steps Towards a Computational Metaphysics" Edward Zalta Stanford University Abstract
Pure and Applied Logic Colloquium Thursday 4 March 2004 4:30 pm, Baker Hall A53 Refreshments at 4	"Choice Principles in Intuitionistic Set Theory" John L. Bell University of Western Ontario Abstract